Excerpt: .A little in the biting wind; midday Brings tiny burrowed creatures, peeping out Alert for sun. Ah March! we know thou art Kind-hearted, spite of ugly looks and threats, And, out of sight, art nursing April s violets! APRIL. OBINS call robins in tops of trees; Doves follow doves, with scarlet feet; Frolicking babies, sweeter than these, Crowd green corners where highways meet. Violets stir and arbutus wakes, Claytonia s rosy bells unfold; Dandelion through the meadow makes A royal road, with seals of gold. Golden and snowy and red the flowers, Golden, snowy, and red in vain; Robins call robins through sad showers; The white dove s feet are wet with rain. MAY. For April sobs while these are so glad, April weeps while these are so gay, --Weeps like a tired child who had, Playing with flowers, lost its way. MAY. HE voice...

Reviews

This ebook is worth purchasing. It is written in straightforward words and not hard to understand. You will not feel monotony at any time of your respective time (that's what catalogs are for about in the event you ask me).

A brand new ebook with a new perspective. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting reading this one. I found out this ebook from my dad and I advised this publication to find out.
