Corpus Callosum Creations, Ltd., 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. I truly believe Dr. Gordon has cracked the code on TBI. This book is going to save millions of lives. Jonathan Wells, J. Wells Media Group This book is a rare work and insight into an injured physician s mind and emotional struggle that must be read by all medical workers and patients suffering from brain injury and concussions. Gerald Dieter Griffin, PharmD, MD, FAFCE, Brigadier General, MC, USA, Retired A captivating journey into the world of TBI s from the perspective of a physician and TBI sufferer. A must read for anyone with TBI, those connected to someone who have it, and equally important for anyone in human resources to understand the challenges of a TBI sufferer in the workplace. Tim A. Garrett, Retired CHRO, Honda of America Mfg., Inc. Often misdiagnosed and misunderstood, traumatic brain injury (TBI) may be a life-altering event which can produce a wide range of symptoms affecting physical as well as psychological health. Indeed, all senses can be affected, especially sight and sound, producing errors in judgment, loss of memory, and difficulty processing information. Now, a physician shares her personal journey with TBI after suffering a life changing accident. In this touching and informative book, Dr. Chrisanne Gordon chronicles her struggles, the high points as well as the lows, as she is challenged to make sense of what happened and realizes that her medical training did not prepare her for these struggles. With intimate detail she explains what it is like to have mTBI, how it affected her life, and what was needed for healing and recovery. Perhaps, most importantly, Turn the Lights On! is a beacon of hope and understanding for anyone who has...
