

Open Our Eyes: Seeing the Invisible People of Homelessness (Paperback)

By Kevin D Hendricks

Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I had it all and ended up on the streets, says Elvin. I put a smile on my face for my kids sake, says Cecilia. I m hoping I can survive another day, says Eddie. These are the gritty, unfiltered voices of America s homeless. This epidemic is putting families, children, veterans and executives on the street. While their stories are often ignored, they re not invisible, thanks to the efforts of InvisiblePeople.tv founder Mark Horvath. He travels the country collecting and sharing raw, unedited videos and gives voice to the nation s homeless. These are the stories of real homeless people, collected and retold from InvisiblePeople.tv videos. Interspersed with those real life stories are reflections from social media experts, nonprofit heroes, technology executives and more, sharing their connection to homelessness and how the inspiring example of InvisiblePeople.tv has impacted them. You ll also find common misconceptions about homelessness and suggestions for how you can get involved. It s time to move beyond the stereotypes and stop looking away. It s time to open our eyes. We re homeless, we re not...
