

Picnic on the Moon (Paperback)

By Charles Coe

Leapfrog Press, United Kingdom, 1999. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Known for his powerful readings and unusually warm and compassionate voice, Charles Coe's poems speak to the heart and mind as well as the ear. Combining subjects as diverse as Afro-American history, myth, jazz, and family as well as surprising observations of those unexpected moments of joy to be found in a work-a-day inner city life, Coe offers us poems as personal as the tale of a sister who opened his life to literature and closed her own with dope; as quietly momentous as the story of Rosa Parks. Here are poems for Ella Fitzgerald and Charlie Mingus alongside a haunting homage to the guests of a battered women's shelter. Above all, Coe's poems touch upon what is essential in us all and speak of life as a gift that is far from perfect but all we have. Charles Coe is the winner of the Massachusetts Cultural Council Poetry Fellowship. A jazz and popular vocalist, he was born in Indianapolis, lives in the Boston area and travels widely to perform and record his work. Get on Up! Can anybody else here say that in the summer...

READ ONLINE
[5.33 MB]

Reviews

Simply no phrases to clarify. It is really basic but surprises from the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Mr. Noah Cummerata IV

This ebook may be worth getting. I actually have read through and i am sure that i am going to likely to read through again once more down the road. You will not sense monotony at whenever you want of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for relating to should you check with me).

-- Mr. Golden Flatley