

Igniting: The Dark Origins

By D. L. Miles

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 282 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.6in. Havenbrooke County has an unusually high number of sudden fires, strangely pinpoint accurate earthquakes, and a terrible percentage of out of school youths. Among all three statistics is Grace, a fifteen year old girl with an uncontrollable temper and knack for thieving. All her life shes been tossed between foster homes, and always kicked out after a fire. Shes finally free of the system and found a home with others like her, with one that even knows her darkest secret. Those sudden fires have all been caused by her, even the earthquakes. When Grace gets upset she cant control the fire within her and tends to explode, with black flames lashing out at high velocity. She doesnt know what she is, or why this is happening, but she does all she can to hide it. Until someone sees her. A group of masked men try and grab her from a busy nightclub when a boy saves her. Noah isnt like anyone Grace has met; he doesnt shy away from her prickly demeanor and tells her he knows exactly what she is...
