

Circuit Angel: Chronicle of Angels and Men (Paperback)

By Shari Bryant

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Thirteen-year old Shigeru Kouna had never wondered why. Why did good people die? Why was conviction so lacking? And just why did good intentions pave the road to hell? To him, Why? was a question that plagued so many. Too many. But it was a question essential to Human existence. Certainly it would seem implausible that a boy such as Shigeru, especially one so young, could have life so figured. And yet, he did. Being the son of such a father, a father who had plotted to alter the very nature of Man - to change the why - Shigeru had always known his purpose. His father had been a rigid man, strong in his convictions and strong in his beliefs, and as a young boy, Shigeru had so longed to tread in the footsteps of his father. They were concepts drilled day in and day out into his skull, now brimming with existential theorems and religious query. And though it was his father who had keyed him in to such quandaries of life and death and God and Man,...
