And Why?: A Reply to Dr. Vaughan, Papal Bishop To The Christian Protestants of England: We have had our attention drawn to a matter that concerns England at large, whether professors of religion or not, as its consequences will affect all in its ultimate results; and that is relating to the Pope. Dr. Vaughan, the Papal Bishop, has made a statement, (vide the Manchester papers of December 14th, 1881,) and says he does it with confidence, that a Mr. Errington has been sent to the Pope with a letter of confidence, that he may be a medium of direct communication between the English Government and the Pope. If so, it is a strange way of conducting the affairs of the nation, that matters of such moment as this are only to be discovered or made known to the nation from a foreign source. It is very evident that circumstances of this kind are made use of to feel the pulse of England, and if there be any opposition made, the quarter from which it comes is specially marked; we may rest assured that the Protestant Alliance Association has not been in existence in vain, as the Bishop makes special reference to it. Of course all that protest against the Pope are, according to their own showing, intolerant; but we have reason to ask for the first instance of the toleration of the Popes of allowing liberty of conscience. When they are able to do this, then we may say they have cause of complaint. Well, after this confidential news, the Doctor begins to speak of England, of the great extent of her...
