Dorrance Publishing Co., United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A new boy in a new town, Kenny just doesn't feel like doing anything. He misses his friends and his grandma, and he is hesitant about starting at a new school. What if no one likes him? Will he ever make any new friends? All of a sudden, he hears a strange noise. Lying next to him is a very unusual creature that sort of looks like a dog but kind of like a rabbit. And, oh! It speaks! Kenny discovers the marvelous creature, called a rog—a cross between a rabbit and a dog. But why does this strange creature suddenly appear in Kenny's life? Read The Welcome Rog to find out! About the Author Music underscored much of Phyllis Tieck's life; she took piano lessons in her youth, she sings in choirs, and she met her future husband in college choir. Later she returned to college, majoring in music, and she received a master's degree. She has been teaching piano for forty-five years. Writing became a part of the healing process for Phyllis after her husband...
