BEAT to a PULP. Paperback. Condition: New. 148 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.4in. In the tradition of Ed Gormans noir Westerns, Edward A. Grainger gives us Adventures of Cash Laramie and Gideon Miles, Vol. II about a pair of unconventional Deputy U. S. Marshals in 1880s Wyoming. These eight adventures infuse the Western genre with a fresh perspective on topics like race relations and social justice while still delivering pulse-racing action in the style of classic television shows Wanted: Dead or Alive and Gunsmoke. Just who the hell are you anyway a dying fugitive asks Cash Laramie in the opening story Origin of White Deer, evoking memories in the Outlaw Marshal of his roots. Raised by the stern Arapaho chief, Lightning Cloud, and the hardships that followed with the death of his kindhearted, adoptive mother Elina, this novella-length tale reveals how the orphaned infant went from being known as White Deer in a small tribal community to a young man living in the city of Cheyenne with the name Cash Laramie. Gideon Miles, Cash's colleague and only confidant, makes his own indelible mark in three pieces that bring to the forefront the challenges of a black lawman in the Old West, reminiscent of this character's real life inspiration, Bass Reeves. Despite insurmountable odds, Miles overcomes the obstacles using cunning and savoir-faire, bringing law and order to a ruthless land. Together Cash and Miles create a formidable duo that's not to be missed. Origin of White Deer (with Chuck Tyrell) Maggie's Promise Miles in Between Cash Laramie and the Painted Ladies Gun Justice (with Chuck Tyrell) Cash Laramie and the Masked Devil Reflections in a Glass of Maryland Rye BONUS: Hell Town Shootout (A Gideon Miles novella not available in print anywhere else, and sold separately as a single shot...
