

A Command Post at War: First Army Headquarters in Europe, 1943-1945

By Jr. David W. Hogan

University Press of the Pacific. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 380 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.8in. x 1.0in. World War II remains the defining experience for the U. S. Army in the twentieth century. It has had a lasting impact on the nation and its place in the world and on the Army and the way it organizes and fights. Although historians have written numerous volumes concerning this global conflict, some gap in the literature remain. In particular, the subject of an American field army headquarters and its organization and role have attracted little attention. Studies on the personalities and styles of individual commanders exist, but the command posts themselves—the ways in they were structures and operated and the functions they performed—have not been much explored. With A Command Post at War: First Army Headquarters in Europe, 1943-1945, the Center of Military History attempts to redress this shortcoming. This study addresses the First Army headquarters in the European theater from its activation in October 1943 to V-E Day in May 1945. Under Generals Omar N. Bradley and Courtney H. Hodges, the First Army headquarters oversaw the American landings on D-Day, the breakout from the Normandy beachhead, the battle of Hrtgen Forest...
