Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Instrument of the Gods and Other Stories of the Sea In making another selection of stories for publication, I have been led to inquire more closely than ever before into the essential nature of nautical fiction. It was the sub-title to the present volume which, as it were, brought me up with a round turn. . And Other Stories of the Sea - the caption went down naturally, almost without thought. Why, certainly, stories of the sea! What else, if you please? I am accustomed to regard myself as a sailor, and what I write as being more or less directly the product of seafaring. The sea is my ground and origin; I have no other point of departure. I am a native of a latitude and longitude. The other day in the attic, overhauling a chest of old letters, I ran across a small pasteboard box containing a piece of shell-encrusted seaweed; it was one of the mementoes that came home among my father's effects when he died on board his vessel in Bremerhaven the year before the war. On the box, in his handwriting, was this inscription: A bit of weed from L - s birthplace, washed on board the S. S. American on June 2nd, 1905, in 44 south latitude, South Atlantic Ocean, in the same kind of a S. W. gale in which he was born; picked up and salted down by his father, this being the first that any of the family ever have seen of that country.
