

Here and There (Paperback)

By Karen Dalin

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When Rachel Levinson settles into her new residence, she attempts to isolate herself. She has lost her husband Rick, her daughter Carolyn, and the possibility of ever knowing the joy of being a grandmother. She yearns to understand why she has arrived in this Hell. Her new friend Betty encourages her to treasure her memories, and to resume her life. Although Rachel is struggling with many painful memories, events she can't recall bring her even more pain. When children begin passing her cottage on their way to classes, Rachel is drawn to a little girl she dubs Hattie. Hattie sincerely believes that she is to be part of a divine plan for learning and growth. She becomes an integral step in Rachel's new understanding of spiritual truths about Control, Remembrance, and Tolerance . . . indeed, especially Love. Karen Dalin lives with her husband in the old farmhouse they raised their three children in. She treasures the intimacy with nature that country living provides. Her family grows by leaps and bounds as her seven grandchildren produce and raise their...

READ ONLINE
[1.72 MB]

Reviews

Simply no terms to explain. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Its been written in an remarkably easy way and is particularly merely soon after i finished reading this book where basically changed me, affect the way i really believe.

-- Prof. Jedediah Kuhic DVM

I actually started off looking over this publication. I have read through and so i am certain that i am going to likely to study again yet again later on. I am easily will get a delight of reading a written pdf.

-- Ross Hermann